

Lead, Don't Follow

ALWAYS

use a leading zero for doses less than one,

e.g. 0.2 mg

NEVER

use a trailing zero for doses that are a whole number,

e.g. 2 mg

Missed decimal points
lead to medication errors.

*Example taken from WRHA hospital prescriptions.