

Refuelling your Quality Engine: Sparking Action for Complex Problems

Operating Room Checklist • Medication Reconciliation • Falls • Positive Deviance • Change Management and more

March 3 & 4, 2011

Victoria Inn
Winnipeg, Manitoba

MANITOBA INSTITUTE
FOR PATIENT SAFETY

Who should come?

- Operating team members (nurses, anesthesia, surgeons), Pharmacists (community and acute), Nurses, Physicians and Quality Leaders
- Health professionals working in home care, long term care, acute care and community
- Leadership responsible for supporting quality and patient safety

Events

Thursday, March 3 – Evening

Registration starts at 5:00pm

Session from 6:00 – 8:00pm

Safe Surgery Saves Lives Checklist

Dr. Guiseppe Papia, Vascular and Endovascular Surgery, Sunnybrook Health Sciences Centre, Ontario

Karen Murphy, Operating Room Manager, Winnipeg Regional Health Authority

Highlights:

- Not as simple as it sounds: learnings and challenges of implementing an operating room checklist
- Local examples and debate on improving the operating room environment using the checklist

Friday, March 4 – Full day

Session from 8:30am - 3:30pm

Positive Deviance, Medication Reconciliation, Falls and Change Management

Vicky Scott, PhD, Fall Prevention Expert, University of British Columbia

Margaret Colquhoun,

National Medication Reconciliation Lead, Safer Healthcare Now!

Katie Procter,

Positive Deviance Canada Coach
BC Patient Safety and Quality Council

Debbie Barnard, Change Management Consultant, Edmonton

Accreditation Canada

Highlights:

- How Positive Deviance might play a powerful role with complex behaviour change
- Gain practical knowledge for success with Medication Reconciliation at transfer and discharge
- Implementing fall prevention strategies – the challenge after assessment
- Innovative ideas around change management, culture and physician engagement in healthcare

Educational RCPSC and CFPC credits available for physicians

UNIVERSITY
OF MANITOBA

Faculty of Medicine
Continuing Professional Development

Thursday Evening: $75

Friday: $125

Thursday & Friday: $175

Register Here!

For more information please contact westernnode@saferhealthcarenow.ca or 403-521-7106